Things to Do

- Quaint, residential neighborhood with some of the best dining and shopping in the city. Nothing “touristy” about it, except, maybe Magnolia Bakery. Great people, atmosphere and NYC culture – when people move to NY, this is where many of them want to live.

Restaurants

- Babbo (110 Waverly, 6th Ave/MacDougal) - Mario Batali. Very romantic, upstairs on the 2nd floor of a converted brownstone.
- Snack Taverna (63 Bedford/Morton)- Greek, romantic, quaint, local favorite.
- Spotted Pig (314 W 11th St/ Greenwich St) - also Mario Batali. Delicious, quaint, indulgent. Upscale, but down home atmosphere British/Italian food. Always see celebs here.
- Extra Virgin (W 4th, Perry) – especially for brunch
- Del Posto (85 10th Ave, 16th St) – owned by Mario Batali. Upscale Italian, pricey, but worth it. Great for a special occasion.
- El Faro (823 Greenwich STREET, Horatio)– Spanish, a NY institution. Tiny, maybe seats 40 ppl – delicious.
- Morandi (211 Waverly Place, 7th Ave)– rustic Italian, same owners as Pastis and Balthazar
- Cowgirls Hall of Fame (519 Hudson at 10th St) - Eight kinds of bbq sauce for kids to do taste tests, games to play. Rumor has it, if the waitress likes you, the kids get cowboy/girl hats.
- Café Wha? (115 MacDougal St, Minetta Lane) – live music and original stomping ground for Bob Dylan and Jimi Hendrix. Bruce Springsteen, Peter, Paul & Mary and others.
