

© Map courtesy of www.openstreetmap.org

Things to Do

- 9-11 Memorial – Free entry, no advance reservations required.
- 9-11 Museum – $24 Adult Admission (free Tuesday evenings 5-8pm). Includes 9-11 Memorial entry.
- One World Observatory - 100th floor of World Trade, reservations and tickets required
- American Stock Exchange (86 Trinity Place, Pine St) and the New York Stock Exchange (20 Broad St). Closed to public touring indefinitely for security reasons.
- The Oculus - World Trade Center Transportation hub for the subway and PATH trains + a Westfield Mall, with over 100 shops & restaurants. It's the huge white oddly shaped building.
- Brooklyn Bridge – walk across for a great view and grab a slice at Grimaldi's afterward.
- Additional Museums - Fraunces Tavern (Revolutionary Era, Museum of the American Indian, Museum of American Finance
- South Street Seaport – shops, restaurants, ships, water views (a little touristy, but nice).
- TKTS booth – 1 Seaport Plaza (192 Front Street). Less crowded than Times Square for half price Broadway tickets.
- Staten Island Ferry (South Ferry) Free, passes close to Lady Liberty, runs every 30 minutes and takes approximately 25 minutes each way. (1, 4, 5, N, R, exit South Ferry).
- NYC Helicopter Tours – most leave from the heliport on the southern tip of Manhattan

• Free 90 minute guided walking tour, sponsored by the Downtown Alliance, Thursday and Saturday at 12:00 pm. Stops include the U.S. Custom House, Trinity Church, Wall Street, the New York Stock Exchange and other architectural and cultural sites.

© Map courtesy of www.openstreetmap.org

Restaurants

- Ulysses' (95 Pearl St, near Hanover Sq) – great pub and night spot with live music. A favorite happy hour and post-work stop for the Wall St crowd.
- Delmonico's (56 Beaver St, William St) – opened in 1837, a classic old-boys, historical, expensive steakhouse. More casual and less expensive Grill attached. It's a Wall Street classic institution, think power lunch, business, politics.
- Manhatta - a new Danny Meyer's hit restaurant! 60th floor of 28 Liberty St. Tower and insane panoramic views of the skyline.
- Georges NY (89 Greenwich St @ Rector Street) - classic New York diner with a huge extensive menu, burgers, salads, omelets, brunch, great for kids. Usually fast service.
- Check out Tribeca for many more choices, 5 minute walk.

Shopping

- Century 21 (22 Cortlandt, Church/Bway) – designer discount shopping. Huge Men's department, Work directly with the garment district reps, and only stock locally. Designers include Armani, Pucci, Prada and Missoni, great shoe department for both men and women.

Hotels

- Millennium Hilton, 55 Church St
- New York Marriott Downtown, 85 West St
- Ritz Carlton Battery Park, 2 West St