• Free 90 minute guided walking tour, sponsored by the Downtown Alliance, Thursday and Saturday at 12:00 pm. Stops include the U.S. Custom House, Trinity Church, Wall Street, the New York Stock Exchange and other architectural and cultural sites.

Things to Do

- 9-11 Memorial – Free entry, no advance reservations required.
- 9-11 Museum – $24 Adult Admission (free Tuesday evenings 5-8pm). Includes 9-11 Memorial entry.
- World Trade Center Visitor Tour – Usually led by volunteers (many involved in 9-11 in some way) mostly indoors, travels along the windows of World Financial Center and 9-11 Memorial. 120 Liberty Street, about 1 hr 15 min, $10, children under 12 free.
- American Stock Exchange (86 Trinity Place, Pine St) and the New York Stock Exchange (20 Broad St). Closed to public touring indefinitely for security reasons.
- Trinity Church
- Brooklyn Bridge – walk across for a great view.
- NYC Police Museum- 100 Old Slip. Mock jail cell, vintage weaponry, 9/11 exhibit, take a mug shot.
- Additional Museums - Fraunces Tavern, Smithsonian National Museum of the American Indian, Museum of American Finance, Sports Museum of America
- South Street Seaport – shops, restaurants, ships, water views (a little touristy, but nice).
- TKTS booth – 1 Seaport Plaza (192 Front Street). Less crowded than Times Square for half price Broadway tickets.
- Staten Island Ferry (South Ferry) Free, passes close to Lady Liberty, runs every 30 minutes and takes approximately 25 minutes each way. (1, 4, 5, N, R, exit South Ferry).

Restaurants

- Check out Tribeca for many more choices, 5 minute walk.
- Les Halles (15 John Street) – French Bistro
- Ulysses' (95 Pearl St, near Hanover Sq)– great pub and night spot with live music. A favorite happy hour and post-work stop for the Wall St crowd.
- Delmonico's (56 Beaver St, William St) – Steak, opened in 1837. Old-boys, historical, expensive steakhouse. More casual and less expensive Grill attached. It's a Wall Street classic institution, think power lunch, business, politics.
- North End Grill (104 North End Avenue) – opened 2012, another Danny Meyer's success. American bar and grill

Shopping

- Century 21 (22 Cortlandt, Church/Bway) – designer discount shopping. Huge Men's department, Work directly with the garment district reps, and only stock locally. Designers include Armani, Pucci, Prada and Missoni, great shoe department for both men and women.

Hotels

- Millennium Hilton, 55 Church St
- New York Marriott Downtown, 85 West St
- Ritz Carlton Battery Park, 2 West St
