Things to Do

- Home of the famous Tribeca Film Festival (April), Robert DeNiro’s project, to promote commerce downtown after 9/11
- Duane Park, Finn Square and Tribeca Park – three small areas surrounded by history and old-meets-new architecture. Check out the converted warehouses that are now some of America’s most expensive homes.
- Washington Market Park (Washington/Jay Sts) - playground and weekly farmers market.
- Hudson River Park and River Promenade - cross the West Side Highway at Chambers to enjoy a stroll from Battery Park City to Chelsea along the water. Watch the runners, bikers, bladers, views of the Hudson, rent a Kayak (free) or bicycle.

Restaurants

- Bubby’s (120 Hudson St, N Moore) – one of the city’s best brunch spots, spicy Bloody Mary’s, comfort food and great for kids. Long weekend lines.
- Nobu (105 Hudson, Franklin) – top NYC sushi restaurant ($$$$). More casual, less expensive (but not cheap) version at Nobu Next Door.
- Tribeca Grill (375 Greenwich St, Franklin)– owned by DeNiro and buddies, often a patron, along with much of his crowd. Food is good, not the best.
- Bouley (163 Duane St, Hudson) – top NYC French, $45 lunch, $85 dinner. Wonderful food and a view overlooking Duane Park. Craving dessert or a snack? Bouley Bakery is rated for its brunch and best hot chocolate in NYC.
- Odeon (145 W Bway, Thomas) – American Brasserie known for being the original inventor of the “Sex and the City” cosmopolitan.
- Bubbles Lounge (228 W Bway, White St) – night spot, champagne lounge with oysters and caviar. Check the Fire House next door – it was the original Ghostbuster’s firehouse.
- Ninja New York (25 Hudson St @ Duane St) - Be whisked underground by elevator, led to the dining area via a secret path lined with “ninjas” ready to scare you, then brought into the castle where each private chamber houses a single table. Fairly pricey for the small portions, but the food is tasty, and the price is for the whole experience.
- More casual/inexpensive local favorites - Puffy’s Tavern (81 Hudson St, Harrison/Jay) – dive bar with cheap beer, Mudville 9 (126 Chambers St, W Bway/ Church) – great sports bar and wings, Capri Cafe (165 Church St, Chambers/ Reade) - small Italian restaurant owned by 2 Italian brothers with great fresh pasta (and a $6.95 prix-fixe lunch deal). Cash only. Kitchenette (156 Chambers St, W Bway) – very kid friendly, Petite Abeille (W Bway) - Belgian mussels and fries, nice outdoor patio.
